ACTIVITIES

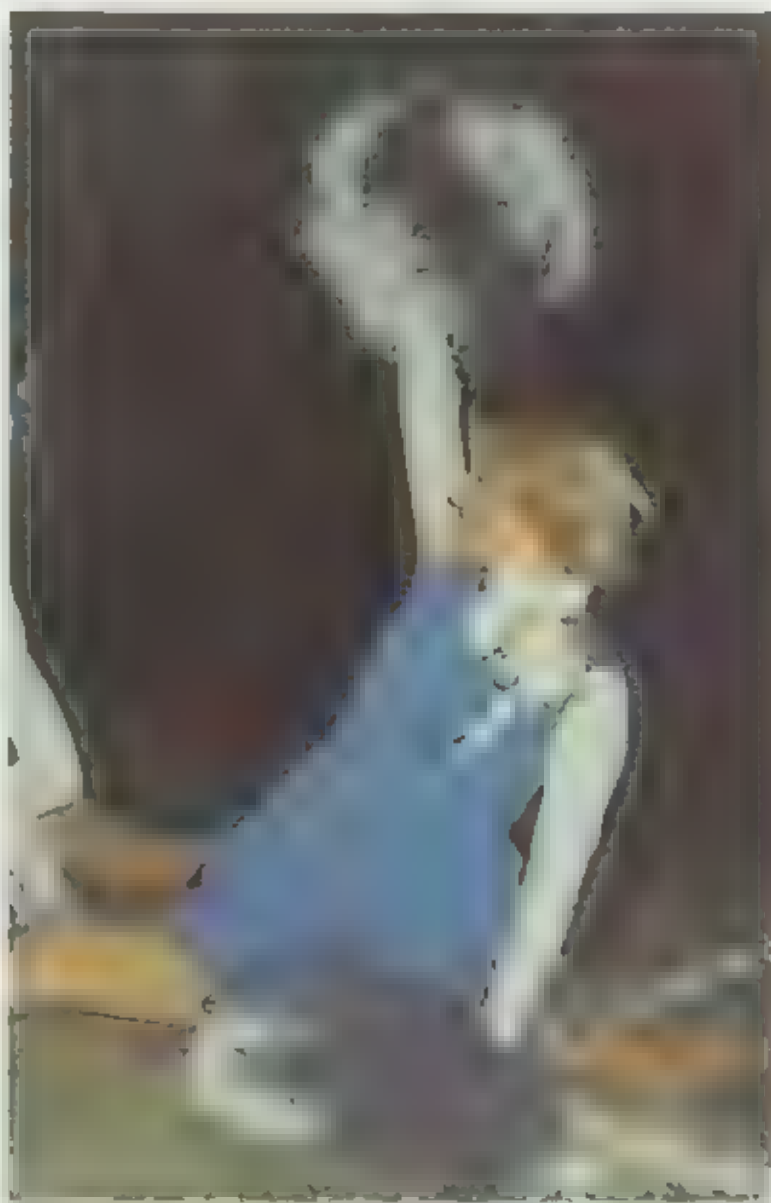

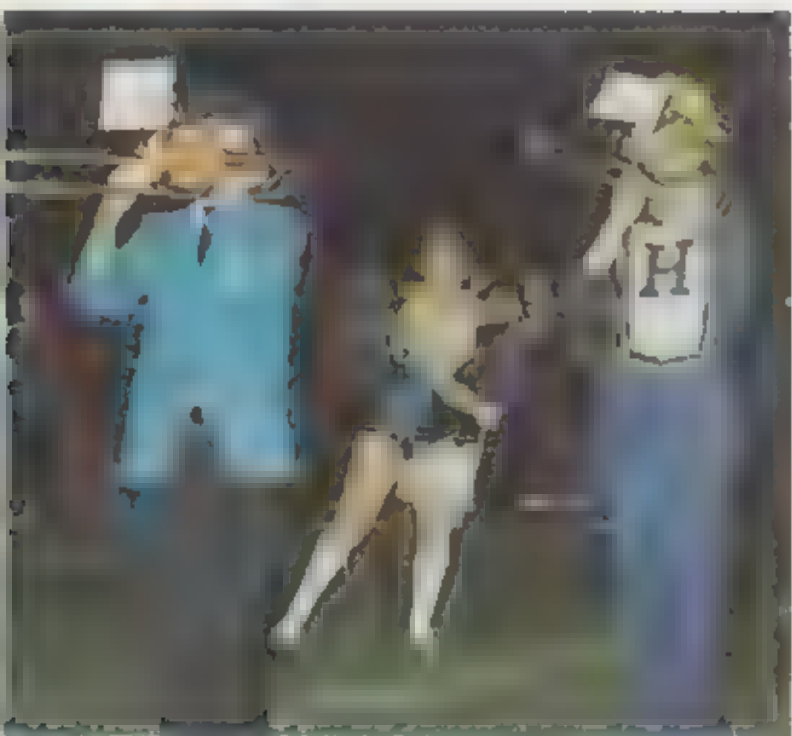

IT'S A SMALL WORLD

On October 3, twenty-eight semi-finalists for the 1976 annual Homecoming Court were presented to the student body during a coronation assembly. The 28 semi-finalists chosen were Tami Aasland, Helene Anderson, Cindy Bahnsen, Sally Bringle, Judy Dancer, Lisa Erickson, Kim Evans, Carol Hershey, Sali Hill, Sue Johnson, Kriste Krahmer, Justine Lackey, Ingrid Lingschiet, Vicki Maller, Marcia Miller, Debbie Price, Kim Prugh, Joyce Punchoar, Radonna McCardle, Julie Schmidt, Bobbie Simons, Terri Speakes, Julie Stout, Regina Templeton, Vicki Troutman, Sue Woll, Jennifer Smith, and Heidi Yoder

Eight Homecoming princesses were chosen by the 1976 soccer cross country, and football teams. The eight finalist included Cindy Bahnsen, Sally Bringle, Judy Dancer, Kim Evans, Sue Johnson, Marcia Miller, Kim Prugh, and Queen Terri Speakes

JUNIORS WIN RALLY WEEK

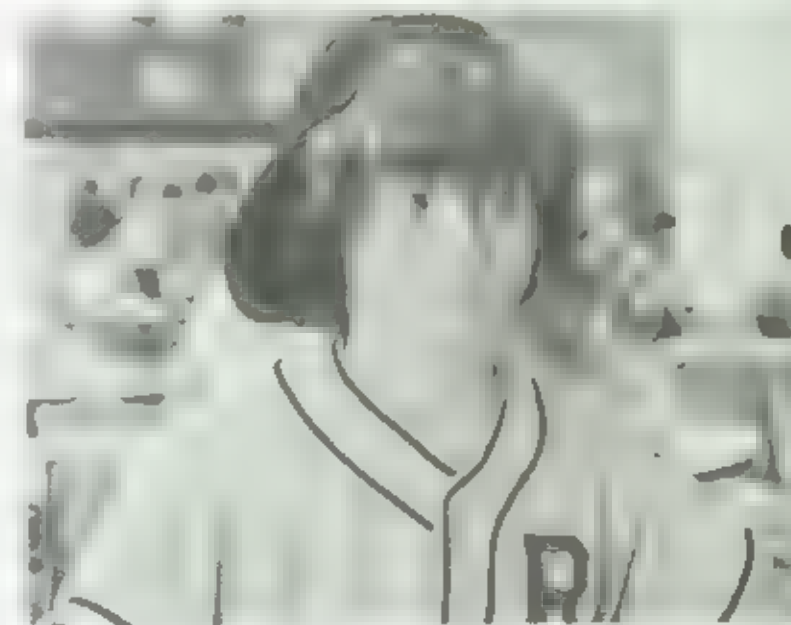

This year's Homecoming theme was "It's A Small World." Monday started off the week with A Day of Wine and Roses. Students dressed up in their very best and roses were sold during lunch. The coronation assembly was also on Monday and 28 semi-finalists were introduced to the student body.

Tuesday was British Isles Day and those students wearing plaids earned a point for their class. Wednesday was International Sports Day. Students were asked to dress for the sport of their choice. That night was the annual Powder Puff game. It was a tense and vigorous game for both teams. By the end of the 4th quarter, the score was at a standstill, 0-0. The game proceeded into overtime but, to no avail, the referees called a tie score. To much the disappointment of both teams. The senior girls ended the night by celebrating their almost victory at Hokies. Thursday, what else but Blue and White Day. A rowdy pep assembly was held during 4th period. Skits this year were given as classes instead of the traditional girls against the guys. As tension mounted the junior class was announced as the winners of rally week.

Saturday night was the finale of homecoming festivities with a dance featuring the group "Vegas". A small world was the focal decoration of the dance, the dance.

The rally worked very hard to make this year's Homecoming an exciting time for all participants. And it truly is an unforgettable event.

POWDER PUFF GAME HIGHLIGHTS WEEK

Competition proved to be stiff as the Senior and Junior girls battled to a draw during this year's Powder Puff football game. After four quarters and two overtime plays the contest ended with score of 0-0. Highlighting the game was Senior Debbie Borders 40 yard run and Junior Debbie Morgans 50 yard pass-interception run. This play was only to be called back on account of Miss Morgans flag tying techniques. Though the competition was tough, the girls still remained united as one.

LOWER LEFT: A selective group of honor included Brian Hutten, Marty Ustad, and Rocky Davis. Kim Bennett, Lori Back, and Julie Emery included the sophomore princesses.

DANCE/DRILL TEAM

The 1976-77 Dance/Drill team began the year by attending the Metro clinic at Centennial High School in Gresham during the summer.

Half of all the trophies awarded were presented to the Hillsboro dance team for outstanding performance. Receiving trophies were Cindy Bahnsen, Sali Hill, Julie Turner and co-captain Debbie Borders. Twelve ribbons were also awarded. Hillsboro girls receiving ribbons were Kim Bennett, Karen Johannes, Leslie McLeod, Regina Templeton, and Annette Wiley.

The dance team also performed at home football, basketball and pep assemblies.

MAJORETTES

Patti Loos, Janice Rogowski, Sue Fern and Sally Lushina made up this years majorettes. Long hours of practice proved to be helpful during their performances.

During the weekend, contests were held between the majorettes. They competed on ability and appearance.

The majorettes performed during half-time at most home football games, at assemblies, and at basketball games.

VARSITY RALLY

School spirit. This is the goal set by varsity Rally members using numerous cheers and class competition.

They began by attending a rally camp in Eugene during the summer. They learned various cheers and got ideas for future activities.

During the year they sold spirit ribbons and buttons reading, "Sparks Shine On". One of their major activities planned was Homecoming Week and the activities that took place during that time.

Their combined spirit carried them through football games, basketball games and pep assemblies.

Members included Marcia Miller, Kathy Tracy, Vicky Maller, Carol Hershey, Shawna Schuh, and Kim Evans.

J.V. RALLY

The J.V. Rally got off to a good start this year by attending Lewis and Clarks' rally camp, practicing two days a week during the summer, and once a week for two hours during the school year

Some of their accomplishments this year included, organizing the annual powder puff football game, selling spirit buttons, and sponsoring a beard growing contest

J.V. Rally members Jill Davis, Sue Harai, Julie Heinrich, and Barb Maglich attended all J.V. football and basketball games, working hard to bring spirit into these events

Soccer, Wrestling Rally

The first year for the soccer rally came off to an excellent start as the soccer team narrowly missed going to state. Yet the rally did quite well, and as the year progressed they improved. Under their faithful advisor Ms. Piro, the soccer/wrestling rally lent a superb aura of Spartan spirit. One rally member summed it up by calling the experience "really terrific--very fun."

THE SPARTAN BAND PLAYS ON

The 1976 Spartan Band had a successful year this year. Everyday the band met second period practicing, drilling, and holding play-offs. Carl Gutmann is once again the backbone of this band. A band that we are all proud of and call our own.

The Spartan Band performed at rowdy pep assemblies, concerts, festivals, and Metro Contests. During halftime at the football games the band entertained Hillsboro fans with an unbeatable drill show. When basketball came around, the band added much spirit and enthusiasm to the game. We thank them all for their well remembered graduation performance. The class of 1977 will long remember those days of simple satisfaction of the Spartan Band. Thank you.

Dixie Land Band satisfies

The Dixie Land Band provides a jazzy alternative to the full Spartan Band for times when the music should be classy, yet contemporary; fast, but spanning the generation gap. With eight highly skilled musicians, the Dixie Land Band has come into being as one of the school's most popular musical groups.

An extension of the Spartan Band, this highly selective organization was led by chairman Scott Stafford, who plays both clarinet and tenor sax. With Eilen Hall on the piano, Brian Drake and Mike Schroeder on the trumpet, Linda Palmer on the clarinet, Tim Armstrong on bass, Bill Schildbach on the trombone, and Mike Zumwalt on the drums, Dixie Land Band held several concerts during the course of the year, playing for private parties, school functions and civic meetings. They practiced once a week at Stafford's home on Wednesday evenings.

Many thanks must go to the Dixie Land Band, who gave us something different, but not foreign; something pensive, but not depressing. Indeed, we received fine examples of jazz from the right

CHORUS: Few in number but, strong in sound

1976 Choir is once again led by Mr. Gerhart. They had fifty-four members, which is the smallest ever run. They had a great potential and the qualities of good voice projection and sound. They have done a great job at the seasonal concerts, such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, Spring and the final Choral Festival.

The 1976-77 Chorus members includes the following students: Antony Akers, Susan Binder, Becky Bertay, Joe Bertsch, Debra Bosworth, Lynne Bramlett, Lita Bryant, Karen Buel, Richard Buker, Lori Carothers, Lise Carroll, Judy Chamberlain, Dan Davis, Marya Elverud, Kim Evans, Paul

Harmonaires sing

The Harmonaires, The ultimate among Hilhi's singers, consisting this year of just over a dozen members. Although small in number, it is quality which they are seeking instead of quantity.

The membership is selected from Senior Choir, and since it is so limited, Mr. Gerhardt can concentrate his efforts on those students. The songs which they sing range from classical to contemporary. One problem which has arisen this year, though, is a general lack of organization.

Granted, they are not as well-known as many groups, they are extremely dedicated to perhaps that most beautiful form of communication, music. Susan Harai, who sings alto, commented that it has been "a very worthwhile experience." And so it has.

Silver bells ring through Christmas week

Christmas of 1976.

Although Hillsboro was not covered by snow during the winter holidays, the spirit was not lacking. From traditions such as Christmas Courts and canned food drives to such novelties as Student Council giving cards to all of the teachers to reindeer on top of the P.E. building -- the season remained successful in the Hillsboro way.

The special week lasted from December 13 until the 17th. Monday was not only Dress Up Day, but Coronation Day. Tuesday was Jingle Bell Day, and Wednesday was Christmas Tree Ornament Day. On those two days, girls wore bells or ornaments in their ears or shoes. Thursday was North Pole Day, with ski attire as a predominate clothing style. Finally, Friday brought with it Red and Green Day, where students were encouraged to display the Christmas spirit.

December 13 shall remain a special day for many years for Ellen Hall, Tessie Colton and Lori Black, elected queen of their classes. Escorts were Gene Spear, Kirk Jarrell and Marty Ulstead. Princesses and escorts included: Helene Anderson and Paul Falby; Terri Henningson and Wayne Marshall; Kriste Krahmer and Brian Horne; Vicky Maller and Tim Lincoln; and Jennifer Smith and Mark Fujii for the senior class; Sue Harai and Tom Driscoll; Wendy McDonald and Scott Borders; Kathy Tracy and Greg Engebretson; and Danette Newkirk and Tom Shaw for the juniors; and Kim Bennett and Brian Hutton; as well as Julie Emery and Rocky Davis for the sophomore class.

During the assembly itself, entertainment was derived from four jazz dancers, stage band, the Girls chorus (who sang "Have a Holly, Jolly Christmas"), and Kim Evans, who sang "Do You Hear What I Hear?" accompanied by Melanie Witt. Perhaps the highlight of the assembly was a dancing star.

A semi-formal dance was held December 18 in the cafeteria. "Street Corner" provided the music, which at times included solid country-Western strains. Generally regarded as successful, it had "mellow music, which is good for a change," as Girls League President Jennifer Smith explained it. The decorations enlightened the dance with a silver moon hanging in the middle of the dance floor. A red sign sparkled with the words: "Twas the Night Before Christmas."

Decoration for the week included Christmas trees set up in the library for each of the classes, numerous twigs of mistletoe, reindeer constructed for the roof of the P.E. building by the wood shop, and classroom doors decorated with the holiday spirit competed. In the end, a tie for first place was made with Mrs. Mortland and Mr. Booth's classes winning.

During the week, other activities included a food drive for charity, a turkey raffle sponsored by The Jolly Deutschkateers, a candy cane sale by Advanced Placement English for a trip to Ashland, and the Student Council giving cards to various teachers and roses for women who hold teaching positions.

Enthusiasm, hard work and dedication lead us...

The Assembly Council has staged another year of successful assemblies for the 1976-77 school year. Under the leadership of chairperson Sandy Paskvan, Assembly Council put on a number of various events which provided both educational and entertaining 40-minute slots.

One problem which did occur, however, was where to situate the sophomores. It was not really fair to seat them on the floor, and so finally, space was found in the bleachers.

Some assemblies put on included a Gong Show on April Fool's Day, an Inspiration Assembly with Mike McKnight, numerous pep assemblies and some talent assemblies, featuring Kim Evans, Paul Falby, Tim Lincoln, and Todd Bebe.

Aside from Chairperson Paskvan, members included Kriste Krahmer, Ellen Hall, Lisa Wallen, Marcia Miller, Jody Meltebeke, Greg Goodwin, Wendy McDonald, Kathee Smith, Debbie Leoffler, Sally Bringle, Heidi YHoder, D'Anna Frewing and Paul Falby. Advisor was Dennis Saxe.

SOPHOMORES ADD PEP TO ASSEMBLIES

This year provided a variety of assemblies for Hili students. Pep assemblies, supported by Varsity and JV Rallys, and the Dance Team, were spirited and loud, taking in account the sophomore population. The senior class was awarded the spirit trophy by an overwhelming majority. Fall and winter sports were also a part of the pep assemblies.

The traditional Homecoming, Christmas, and King Arthur assemblies were very successful along with the all new Gong Show assembly. KPAM and KGW radios enlightened our day with music-slide shows of today's teenagers. A popular and welcome guest at Hili assemblies was Mike McKnight who spoke of "The big time," encouraging students to be winners.

Assemblies were a welcome part of the school day and many thanks go to the Rally squads and the Assembly Council for helping to put it all together.

Girls League Supports Active Year

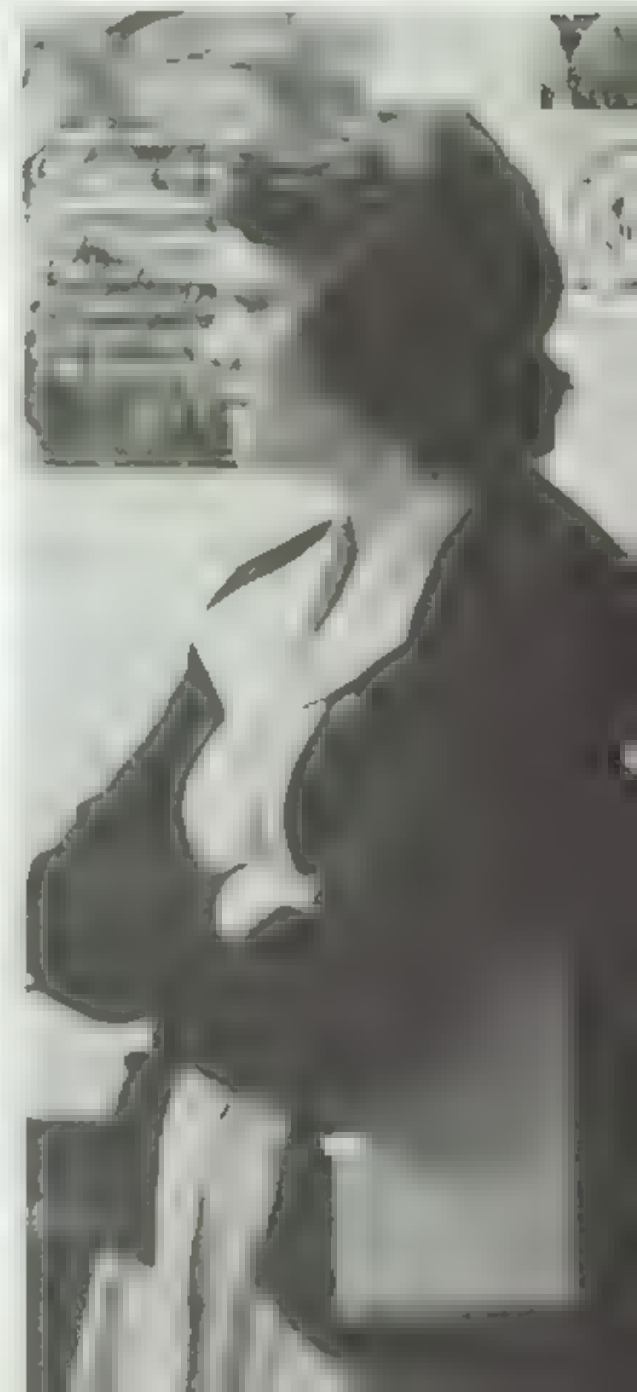

Girls League is one of the most active clubs on campus. The organization involves girls in student activities and allows them to meet new people and promote harmony and fun to other members of the student body. This years membership soared to more than 200 girls. With this large of a group, events were successfully sponsored such as dances, candy sales, and potlucks. Major Girls League activities included Christmas Week and the second annual King Arthur and The Knights of the Round Table Assembly.

Silent knights feature kings, rooks and queens

Chess Club had yet another successful year for the 1976-77 season. President Steve Robison led a club of fifteen other members to battle with kings, queens, knights, and rooks.

The winners in their vie against David Douglas, they tasted a bitter defeat to Oregon City, who won last year's state championships. "It was only one point that made the difference," lamented Robison as he talked about the Oregon City match's narrow margin.

Along with advisor Mr. Dave Vernier and Robison, the club roster included Donie Bret, Robert Dalton, Dan Guza, Dave Guza, Gerlad Hansen, Jim King, Ken Roland, Joel Sauerwein, Ed Smith, David Spitz, Carolyn Stanley, Steve Sheppard, Jim Tranlong, Rick Vuylsteke, and Doug Zagajeski.

Robison summed up the club experience by saying that its purpose is threethold: "To play chess, of course, organize competition and to introduce new types of chess games."

Lack of snow creates "unusual" year

Once upon a time there lived a club consisting of approximately 113 members. Because of their frequent trip up to yonder mountain, they became known as the Ski Club. They were led by an aspiring olympic skier named Dennis Castle and his faithful assistant, John Elliot.

As the months passed by and January was approaching, the club noticed something was missing .snow! But, alas, the glorious white flakes began to fall and the club began its weekly trips to Mt. Hood.

But his momentary happiness did not last for long. An unexpected disaster arrived (commonly called rain) and melted away the precious snow

Although the snow was scarce, the ski team was not to be forgotten. Varsity members: Dennis Castle, Greg Goodwin, Tony Hoffman, Peter Gillis, Brad Nantz, Jim McKeown, and J.V. Members: Steve Wagner, Dan Watson, Larry Irvine, Bill Irvine, Jim Driscoll, Gary Collins, Ty Boyer, Rick DuCharme, and Diane Watson continued practicing four days a week in the gym and going up to Mt. Hood on Tuesdays.

So concludes an unusual year of sking, only to be remembered by those who continued their prayer for snow

NHS: Leaders of Tomorrow

Hilhi National Honor Society's community project this year was Project Second Wind. They sponsored many activities during Second Wind Week, February 21-26. The group was met with enthusiastic student support through Hit Day, Hunger Day and a Second Wind assembly. The week was finished off with neighborhood canvassing and taking the food collected into a Portland warehouse to sort the canned goods. Advisor Mrs. Mary Carol Day noted, "The NHS's successful Second Wind campaign proved to the community and to the school that its members are leaders."

Other activities this year were a fall dessert to initiate in-coming members of NHS, the Senior Honor Banquet, sponsored by local service clubs to recognize the graduating seniors in NHS, and the Ice Cream Social during May Fete in the spring.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

This year we have had an interesting group of foreign exchange students at Hillsboro Senior High. We hope they learned a lot about our country and had as much fun as we've had learning about them and their countries. TOP LEFT: Jorge Contreras, Antonio Dewey and Francisco Quezada are from Mexico. TOP RIGHT: Amelia Sandoval from Guatemala. LEFT: All the Hilhi exchange students gather for a group shot. BOTTOM LEFT: Jugo Gomez from Costa Rica. BOTTOM RIGHT: Marti Solange from Venezuela and Brian Tuedela, Saipan, Marianas Islands

"It was a hard act to follow," adviser Harold Kaufman remarked on the performance of the 1976-77 Hilhilites staff. "Our 1975-76 staff had received an All-American rating. Newspapers are somewhat similar to State Champions in sports. It is hard to win a championship each year because it takes a well-balance staff to make All-American and the same holds true for any sport championship," the adviser concluded.

There were some highlights of the staff. Editor Charlie Weaver won 1st place in sports writing at the Mt. Hood Mass Communications Conference in February. Rosa Vasquez set some new records in selling advertising and leading the ad staff. Susan O'Keefe, one of our first sophomores on the staff, wrote well, worked hard and shows much promise. She was invited to attend the National Scholastic Press Conference in San Francisco, California.

Organizational charts, pre planning pages and more efficient use of "in class-time" were stressed. A change in news management, photography and advertising were accepted by the administration for the 1977-78 school year. Changes in the physical layout of LA 16 will be in effect for the new school year.

Hillsboro takes honors at Mass Media Convention

Hillsboro publications members attended the fifth annual Mt. Hood Community College Mass Media conference and came away with grand honors. The conference is held annually with workshops for communications students from Oregon and Washington to teach more in fields of yearbook, paper, photography, radio, and television. Competition amongst students is also a part of the conference.

This years award winners for the Hillsboroites included Don Elser, receiving a fifth in editorial writing, and Pam Ruby also garnered a fifth in Cartoon. Sparta editor Chris Leachman placed fifth in yearbook organization while the team of Karen McInnis and Sherie Leslie grabbed a first in promotion. Lyn Aldrich and Lisa Parson teamed for a third in lay-out with Steve Kroon placing second.

In the early afternoon, a panel was held which featured speakers such as Suzanne Ashmund of the Gresham Outlook, Dave Falconer, head photographer for The Oregonian, Mark Malzells of KOIN, and Craig Walker of KGW radio.

The National Scholastic Press Association Conference attracts hundreds of promising high school journalists and advisors each year to its West coast Spring convention. This year was no exception with more than 2500 in attendance at the Hilton Hotel, San Francisco April 15-17, 1977. Seven Hilhi students and their advisor-chaperone Harold Kaufman and his wife, Vesta attended this year's convention and saw the sights as pictured here

Project Second Wind, in its seventh year of operation, again came to Hillsboro. Introduced by Honor Society it is the largest food drive of its kind in the nation and is coordinated entirely by youth.

Washington County coordinator Chris Moore, Hills chairman Teri Barnhart, and Activities Chairman Don Elser oversaw the week. Hunger Day brought in a total of $141.44, with numerous swoons over Elvis Elser. Hit Day, which saw a number of teachers smashed in the face with pies, brought in $94.

The Second Wind Assembly was designed to make the student aware of the need. In this assembly, Debbie Herb portrayed Hunger, Bob Faber was Foodsarelli, and Chris Moore and Dawn Knudsen were the parents. But everyone agrees that Sherie Leslie stole the show in her type-case role as a little girl.

On February 26, over 30 students canvassed Hillsboro and collected 105 bags of food.

Girls dominate political power

The year 1976-77 for the student council was one of enthusiasm, hard work, and determination. The four ASB offices were held by an all girl crew. Sally Bringle, president; Kriste Krahmer, vice-president; Marcia Miller, secretary, and Lisa Erickson, treasurer. Activities chairman for the student council was Brian Turnbull.

Starting out their year members attended a national student council convention which convened in Portland, Oregon. Many events were made possible this year because of the council's active participation. Homecoming and Christmas week were given an extra little boost from the guidance of the members. Then came the revision of the school's constitution, after several months of avid assistance from Robert Brown, Mary Beth Long, and Carter Wood, the laws were passed by the rep. council and ASB officers. Carter will long be remembered for his explicit parliamentary words of advice (frankly Carter, I don't give...). Senior citizens were provided a free lunch and tour of the campus during the month of February. The council is ending its list of accomplishments by arranging for the set-up of a sign displaying the going-ons of the campus. Activities, making them happen is what being a leader is all about. All members of the council will long remember the long hours of decision making, 4th period cookies, and hard work, but the main thing they will remember were the friendships that were made.

Senior Senate Plans Prom

The major reason for the Senior Senate is that of preparation for the prom and let no one be disappointed, for the Senior Senate has made plenty of money for their prom.

Preparing for the prom is not easy, yet no one denies that the work isn't rewarding. The Senate had to audition several bands to see which would be best. In order to make money, they held a Faculty-versus-Sunset basketball game as well as an April Fool's Dance.

Many thanks to the Senior Senate for a job well done.

"Ballots Are Our Business"

"It is a lot of hard work, but when that last ballot is counted, somehow it all seems worth it. With the help of efficient and trustworthy individuals, Election Board functioned as a well-organized body."

This statement, made by Kriste Krahmer, Election Board co-chairman with Leslie Friend, sums up what it's like to work on Hills Election Board.

The purpose of this venerable committee is to supervise all elections held within the school.

For instance, duties of Election Board include reviewing qualifications of candidates, printing and counting ballots, organizing polls, and announcing winners.

Advised by Mr. Piland, Election Board took care of Homecoming and Christmas Courts, and elections for both ASB and Class officers.

With the passing of the new Constitution, students had to sign up to vote, and the procedure was completed out of guiderooms by Election Board. Unfortunately, turn out was not as good as one might have expected.

One member of Election Board commented that even though it is "exciting and rewarding, it is also an all-day thing." A good incident to illustrate this would be the night before Homecoming Court ballots had to be distributed. Members of Election Board had to stay at school until 7:30 p.m.

The people who devoted time and effort to Election Board were, aside from Krahmer and Friend: seniors Schadia Hawash, Ellen Hall, Kim Prugh, Ivan Dooley, Mike Woods and Kurt Smith; juniors Louanne Lum, Karen Marshall, Sue Harai, Gary Beals, Cristie Campbell and Chris Moore; sophomores Shelly Arnold and Nancy Johnson.

Summing it all up, co-chairman Leslie Friend said, "To me, it was rewarding to work with the people on it. There was a lot of hard work, and there was also a lot of fun being able to run a main function of the school."

King Arthur and The Knights of the Round Table

The second annual King Arthur Assembly, again was sponsored by Girl's League and their advisor Mr O'Donnel. The assembly, designed to recognize some of the most outstanding male members of the student body, was a success.

Ozzie Harris was voted this year's King Arthur. During the assembly, King Arthur Knighted Brad Fah, Mark Fujii, Tom Shaw, Rick Dancer, K.C. Hansen, Kirk Jarrell and Greg Englebreton as "Knights of the Round Table".

Girl's League provided the students with some outstanding entertainment. Kris Casselman played the guitar and sang an original song for the audience, which she dedicated to 1977's King Arthur and the Knights of the Round Table. The Dance Team then "Did a little dance" for our viewing pleasure.

SPARTS PLACE THIRD IN METRO

The Hilhi Spartan's ended their season with seven wins and two losses. This win-loss ratio left them with a third place standing in the Metro League behind first place Sunset and Central Catholic, second.

Some impressive individual statistics were garnered by Jeff Campbell with thirteen touchdowns, 119 rushes, gaining 764 yards and averaging 6.4 yards per carry.

Colins nabbed thirty-six passes for 588 yards and seven touchdowns from Marshall who, at quarterback, completed 111 passes out of 234 attempts for 1,840 yards and twenty touchdowns.

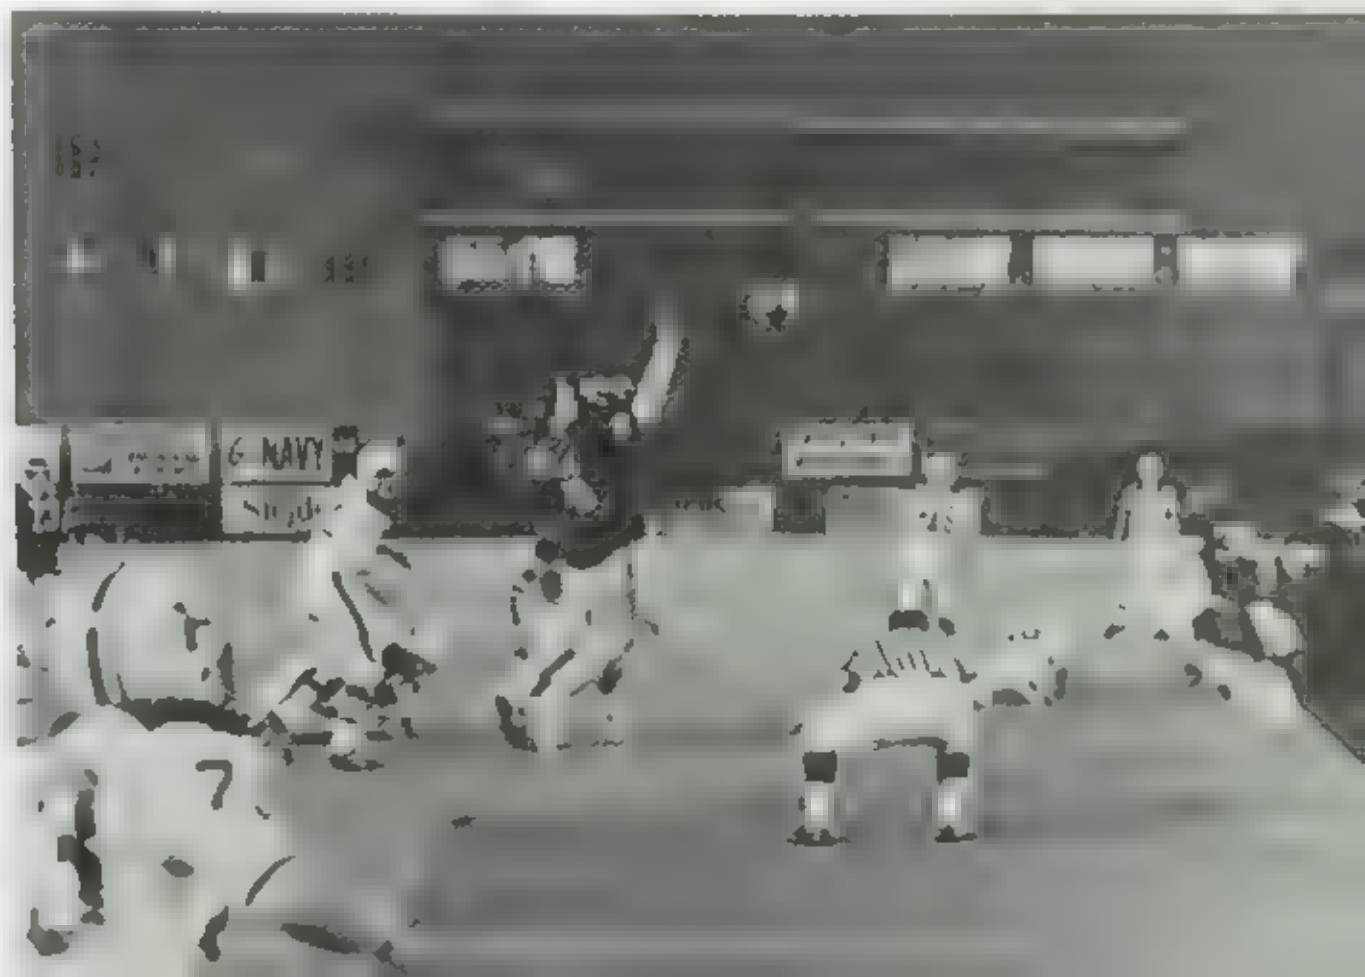

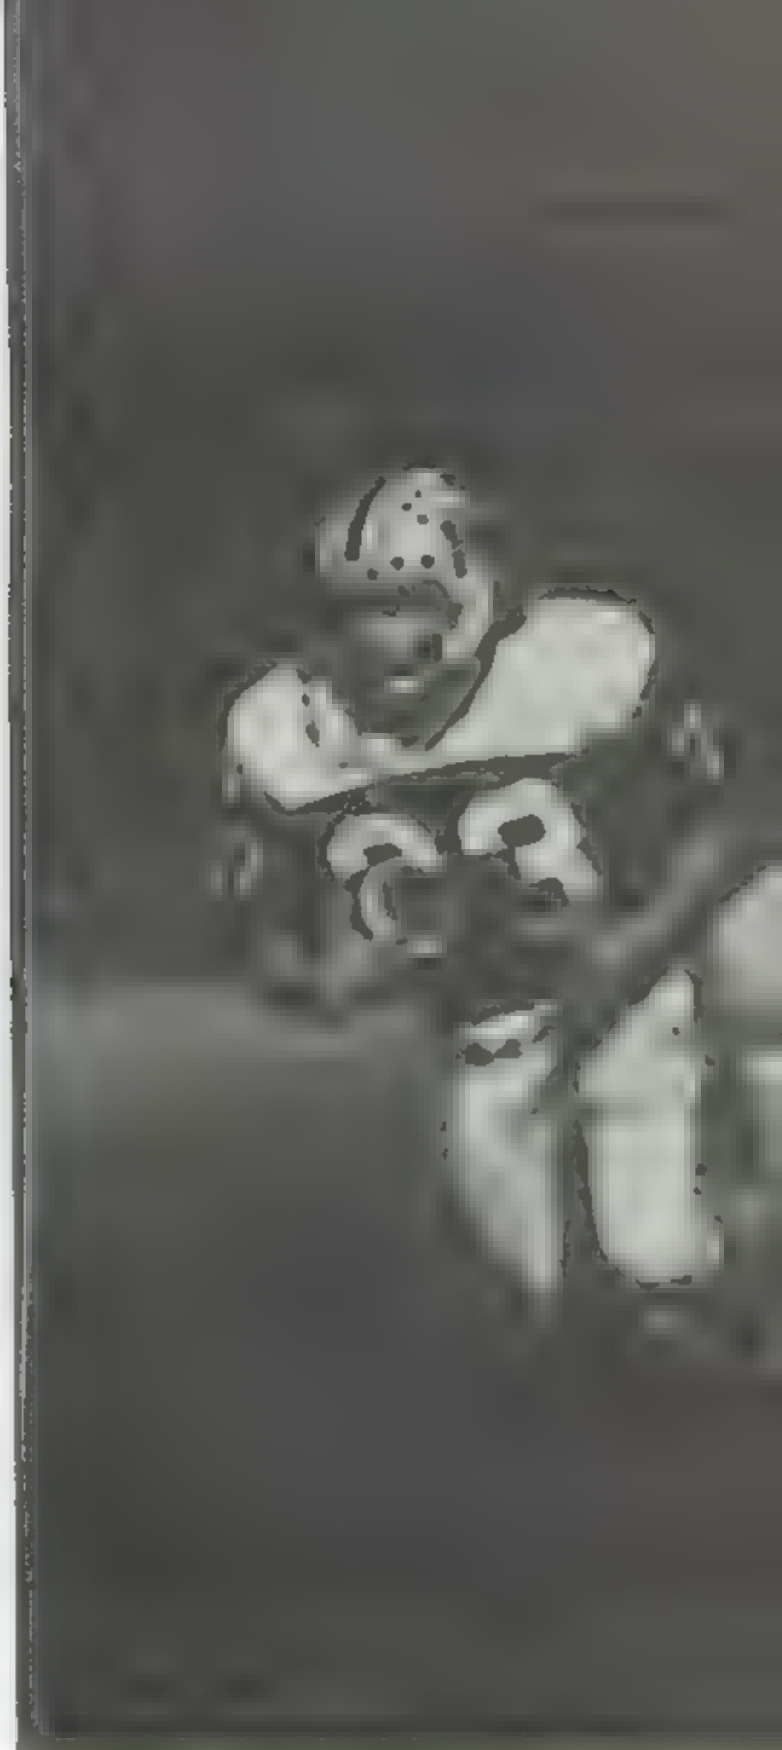

Kelly Bjornsen, second leading rusher, with 458 net yards and third in pass receiving with twenty-three catches for 449 yards, eight touchdowns and seventy-two points ended an impressive season.

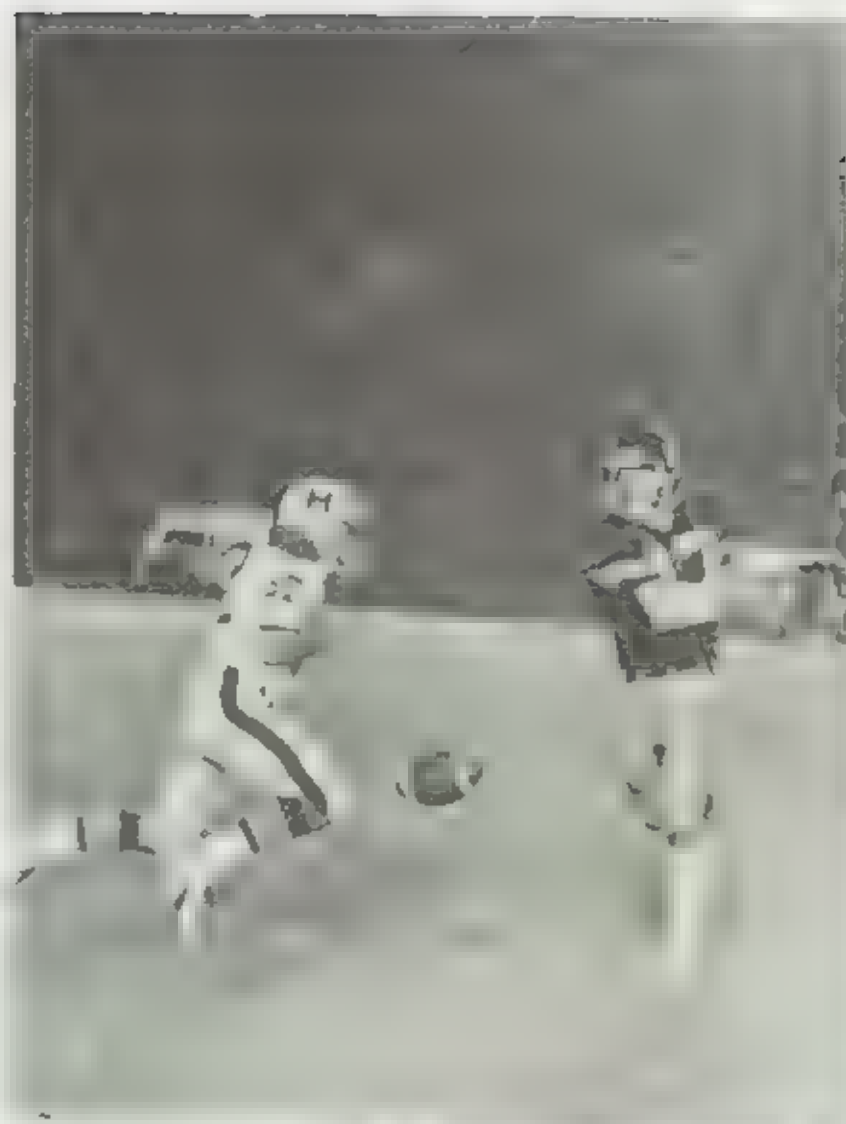

Motter was the second pass receiver, having twenty-two for 479 yards, rushing with sixty-eight carries and gaining 441 yards.

Defensive back Jeff Roy, maintained a school record for most interceptions for a single season as he snatched from the airways six of the opponents passes for a total return of 95 yards.

Marty Uistad, sophomore, returned ten kickoffs for 231 yards and had seven punt returns to gain 66 yards.

Although not a winning season for being on the top of the Metro League, it was an impressive season for the coaching staff of Powell, Musser, Stevens and Nelson.

MEN HARRIERS POST EXCELLENT SEASON

A lot of hard work and hours of intense practice payed off for the 1976 Boy's Cross Country team. The harriers finished their season with a Metro League record of 5-2....placing second at the District Meet and 12th at the State Meet held in Eugene.

Adding glory to the Hills name was James Hester who was awarded All League. Rob Studolph, team captain, played an important role by finishing third highest in Hillsboro's Cross Country teams and was chosen the most valuable by his fellow teammates. Also chosen were Mike Krahmer as most improved and most inspirational to the team was Chuck Leutwyler.

Mr. Kellar felt the team came along well although they did lose a couple of meets, they still maintained their poise.

COMPLETE INSPIRATIONAL YEAR GIRL'S CROSS COUNTRY

The 1976 Girls Cross Country Team battled to the very end to defend the Metro League Championship title which was decided by their final meet. Defeat came against Sunset when they stepped aside and the title went to Sunset. The season ended with the record standing at 3-3.

Laurie Lincoln, leading runner, was given the Most Valuable award. Julie Kendig proved to be the Most Hard-Working. Also chosen was Sue Vanoudenhaegen as Most Improved, and most Inspirational, Julie Schmidt and Linda Leffel.

As always Coach Briggs was an inspiration to the team and lead them to a successful season.

GIRLS VOLLEYBALL, SOCCER FACE COMPETITION

Girls fall sports played a role in establishing themselves as an important part of the school's activities.

The 1976 Volleyball team didn't have a very succesful season, as one teammate stated "We tried hard but we just couldn't do it. We did have fun." Their season record was 1-11...the winning game being against David Douglas.

The newly established 1976 Girl's Soccer team had a very successful season with the ending record of one win and two ties. The soccer team got underway practicing the beginning of October and by spending long hard hours of practice under the supervision of Coach Beth Krause they were ready for the first game October 17. All the girls on the team learned alot and many have joined the Columbia Soccer League and plan to be back next year.

WINNING SEASON CAPTURED BY VARSITY SOCCER

This year's 1976 Varsity Soccer team ends their season with a record of 9 wins, 2 losses and 3 ties. They placed third in the Metro League.

Greg Goodwin co-captain, was voted Most Improved while Dick Hiestler earned the Best Sportsmanship award. Thomas Malm was chosen as the Most Valuable Player.

The general comment of the team was that "The season went well" and Coach Quies was proud of his spirited team.

Varsity Basketball Year Described As "Frustrating"

"It was a frustrating year," replied Coach Barry Adams. "We played exciting, close games but didn't win." The Spartans struggled through a tough season ending with a 7-15 overall record. In fact, seven games were lost by only sixteen points—one game lost by one point, three games lost by two points and three other games lost by three points.

Leading scorers were Lorne Ray, 320 points, and Kelly Bjornsen, 222 points. Ray also lead in rebounds and blocked shots, 203 and 35 respectively. Bjornsen was the leader in interceptions and assists with 29 each.

Despite the losing season, Hilhi managed to break one school record and tie another. The cagers brock an eleven year old record against Forest Grove by scoring 92 points. The old record was 89 against Central Catholic in 1966. That same scored tied the record for the largest margin of victory, 37 points, this record being set in 1971 against Forest Grove.

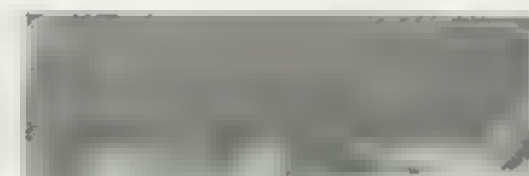

Award this year went to Lorne Ray, team captain, Ray and Kelly Bjornsen(tie), most valuable player; Paul Goodwin, best defensive player and Randy Feitish Sportsmanship Award; Jeff Campbell, most inspirational; and Derwin Templeton, most improved.

J.V. Basketball The Hilhi "Pygmies"?

Actually there were no pygmies playing J.V. basketball, but the team suffered from a deficiency of height. Coach Marv Rueck said that the team was always competitive, but didn't quite win. The junior varsity ended the season with a 10-12 record.

The leading scorers were Staff Olanie, 207 points and Rob Ray with 194 points. Dave Warren led the JV's in rebounds and assists gaining 161 and 32, respectively. Olanie also led in interceptions taking the ball away 43 times.

The team showed the ability to stay together as a unit because of their enthusiasm and drive.

Competitive spirit proves useful for Girls Basketball

The 1976-77 Girls Basketball team showed great competitive spirit this season. The girls were led to many victories by Coach Dave Olmstead.

Winning seven out of 17 games, and accumulating 756 points in the season, the female netters averaged 44.5 points per game.

High scorer of the season was Laurie Lincoln with 85 field goals. Linda Leffel and Diane Trask were named as two of the Athletes of the Week by the Oregonian for their outstanding performances during the '76-77 season.

As with any emerging sports program, the girls did have difficult times, but this year the team has taken hold of more competitive ground. Their trademark was spirit and hustle.

Grapplers Grab Metro Title!

Riddled by preseason injuries the Hillsboro Spartan wrestling team got off to a slow 2-3 start losing to Sweet Home and Newberg.

After Christmas vacation the Spartans regrouped to go on to a final 15-5 league season. The two teams were guided through this exceptional season by varsity coach Gordon Hoffman and junior varsity coach John Lucas.

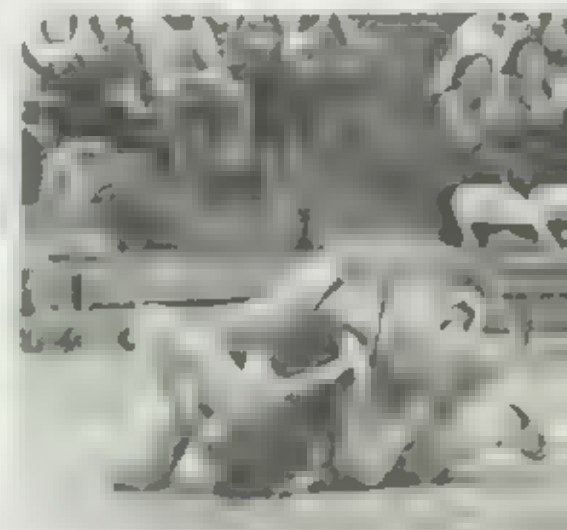

This years district meet was held in February at David Douglas. The Hilhi wrestlers left David Douglas bearing the title of #1 in District. Successful Fund-Raising Year for Juniors

The Junior Senate completed the year with $725 awaiting the class of '78. Chaired by Chris Moore, the Senate held a raffle which made $100 and sponsored the Faculty vs KGW No-Stars basketball team which netted the incredible sum of $600. During May Fete, sno cones made $25.

Secretary was Sheri Hoff; the roster included Sheri Morin, Robin McKee, Louanne Lum, Patty Morrison, Kim Woods, Chris Mills, Elaine Hill-ecke, Rick Fuller, Greg Johnson, Steve Richardson, Sara Running and Travis Good. The Senate, along with advisors Mrs. Sandra Cox and Mrs. Nancy Gehris, worked closely with junior class officers Duff Staley, Dennis Castle, Sue Harai and Gary Beals.

Senate chairman Chris Moore said "I felt lucky to have so many concerned senate members. We worked together very well and I must say that it was remarkable to pull in $725 for just eight months."

Trackwomen Take Second in Metro League

The Hillsboro Spartan trackwomen chose Joyce Puncochar and Sally Bringle as co-captains for 1977.

The Spartans tied Aloha for second place this season with a 4-1-1 record. Hillsboro broke their winning streak of 23 straight wins since 1973 as Sunset beat the Spartan track women in the first meet of the year.

The team set two school records as the 440 relay team consisting of Kim Mock, Sally Bringle, Julie Brandt and Sherie Gott went :50.8. The mile relay team consisting of Sue Vanoudenhaugen, Laurie Lincoln, Karen Johannes and Julie Brandt went 4:10.1 at the Clackamas Invitational meet.

The trackwomen representing Hillsboro at the State Track Meet were 440 relay team. Members of the team were Sherrie Gott, Karen Buxton, Sally Bringle and Kim Mock. Buxton in the 100 yard dash and 220; Laurie Lincoln in the high jump; Kim Mock in the long jump and Molly Schnorenberg in the javelin.

Spartan spikers capture Elden Kellar Invitational Title

Depth proved instrumental on Friday, April 28, as Hilhi's boys and girls track teams captured team honors in the tenth annual Elden Kellar Invitational track meet sponsored by the Hillsboro Optimist Club.

The Spartan spikers scored in all but three events and received points from 22 performers enroute to a 78 total point score. Columbia River High, from Vancouver, WA, was second and Forest Grove High captured a third.

In the girls meet, Hilhi scored in every event to out-distance their opponents. Hilhi's Laurie Lincoln and Karen Buxton set meet records in the girls meet. Lincoln soared 5'5" in the high jump to breach her own school record and established a meet record. Buxton made a meet mark of :25.96 in the 220.

Steve Vuylsteke was the leading scorer for the Hilhi boys, getting 8 1/4 points. Vuylsteke went over the intermediate hurdles in :39.7 and teamed with David Schranz, Ken Erickson and Bob Adlesich to win the mile relay at 3.29 2.

Tying in with Hilhi's spring festival, the May Fete Court distributed the awards to the winning participants.

Diamondmen Handicapped By Young Team Complete 12-17 Season

This year's varsity baseball team, coached by first-year transfer from Aloha Pat Culligan, contained only four seniors. Though backed by six returning letterman, the diamondmen were plagued with lack of experience. With a season record of 12-17, the team went 5-9 in league play. Wayne Marshall led the team in batting with a .308 average. Craig Heckenable garnered the most hits with 24 while Dave Beck scored the most runs with 22. A total of 113 runs were scored by the Spartans and Marshall lead in home runs with 2.

In team awards, Marshall earned Most Valuable while Beck was awarded with Most Inspirational. Heckenable was chosen Most Improved. Looking at the season, Coach Culligan and his faithful assistant Ron Webb felt that the team improved greatly and look forward to a strong team next year.

JV Baseballers Dominate Metro League

Coach Tom Rohlf's lead his team to another Metro League title with a season record of 22-3, going 11-1 in league play. Players awarded for their skills are as follows: Mike Vanoudenhaegen, Most Valuable; Bart Latrell, Most Improved, and Jack Gleason, Most Inspirational. The Best Hustler award went to Jeff Herd, Tim Swanson received the Rookie of the Year award and Ken Vandomelen earned the Team Clown award. Capturing the title was the second in four years for Coach Rohlf's and his JV diamondmen.

Girls win 17-lose 1 in softball

The Spartan softball's varsity team won seventeen games and lost one for the season. Coach Jerry Johnson's only loss came to Sunset in a squeaker, 1-0.

The girls ran up a total of 247 points to their opponents 62.

Speech Club Completes Trophy Winning Year

Imagine getting up at 6 am on Saturday mornings, boarding a musty bus along with about twenty other "eager" students, and setting out for destination unknown. Sound enticing?

Such is a typical Saturday when the Hillsboro Speech Squad sets off to a high school invitational tournament. Coached by veteran Chuck Bentley and assistant Marilissa Butler, the Hills speakers participated in a total of numerous tournaments held in various high schools and colleges throughout the state. Each member of the club developed an individual event to be their own.

Four members of the Hills Speech Team placed at district. Junior member Don Elser took first in After Dinner Speaking and second in serious interpretation, junior Chris Moore and senior Carol Pedersen took first and second in expository speaking, and senior Janice Takalo took second in radio. The four speakers qualified for the state speech tournament April 15, 16 and 17. Janice Takalo took fourth at state.

Other members making finals at district were Dawn Knudsen, radio, Debbie Herb, poetry, and Sherie Leslie, impromptu.

Outstanding tournament of the year was McMinnville where the team took senior division sweepstakes and overall sweepstakes.

This year's Drama and Thespian season premier, "The Skin of our Teeth," featured some of the best talents in the field of drama that Hilhi has seen in many years.

Thornton Wilder's play depicts the perfect satire on present-day philosophies, dealing with such issues as problems faced by the typical American family, war, poverty and women's equality; all different situations in which the characters always manage to pull through by the "skin of their teeth."

The plot centers around the Antrobus family, (modeled after Adam and Eve) consisting of the main character, George Antrobus (played by Ivan Dooley), who is father, creator and motivator of modern society.

Trena Bugar was cast as Maggie Antrobus; mother, protector and general backbone of humanity.

The household also included Kathi Cooper, as the maid Lily Sabina, sometimes known as Miss Somerset and /or Miss Fairweather, who symbolizes the sinful side of life but no matter what happened "always ended up back in the kitchen."

Act — of the three-act play is festive and fast-moving with background information laid down for the audience. In Act II, one begins to notice that the play has a deeper meaning than it had at first appeared. Act III, the closing scene especially, exploded with the true meaning of life and ambition leaving the audience awed and inspired.

The Senior Awards Assembly was held June 3, 1977 to a packed house in the Hilhi gym. Seniors were recognized for scholarships, Awards, Honors at Entrance, and Hall of Fame. Being the largest graduating class in the state of Oregon, Hilhi students were honored with numerous awards.

Seniors coming away with awards for the annual Hall of Fame were Jim Parker and Sue Bender, Most Dependable; Greg Goodwin and Kriste Kralmer for the Most Contributions; and Most Likely to Succeed went to Carter Wood and Marcia Miller. In the area of academics, Allan Suess and Ellen Hall walked off with the honors of Most Studious while Mark Fujii and Sally Bringle received awards for being the Most Outstanding. Because of their musical abilities, Tim Lincoln and Kim Evans earned Most Talented. Ozzie Harris is a chip off the old block when he captured the honor, along with Kim Baker, as Best Personality. Friendliest went to Rick Dancer and Julie Schmidt. In the athletic department, a well deserving Wayne Marshall and a not so deserving Terri Speakes were awarded as being Most Athletic. Finally, Jody Meltebeke and Terri Henningsen were named the Wittiest.

Good-bye Grad's Assembly Bids

Class of '77 Farewell

The Good-bye Grads Assembly is to Hilhi as the Academy Awards are to Hollywood. Keeping such spirit in mind, let us return to what numerous students referred to as easily the year's best assembly.

Through the hosting of Ivan Dooley and Lisa Wallin, AWARDS reach such varied categories as: Shrimp of the Year, which went to Julie Schnorenberg in "The Seven Dwarves"; the H.O.R.N.Y. Award, presented to Scott Stafford, czar of the Spartan Band; the Sophomore Class for "Rookies of the Year"; Mr. Wyatt Newman for his shingy palate; Matt Salzman, recognized for achievement with the opposite sex.

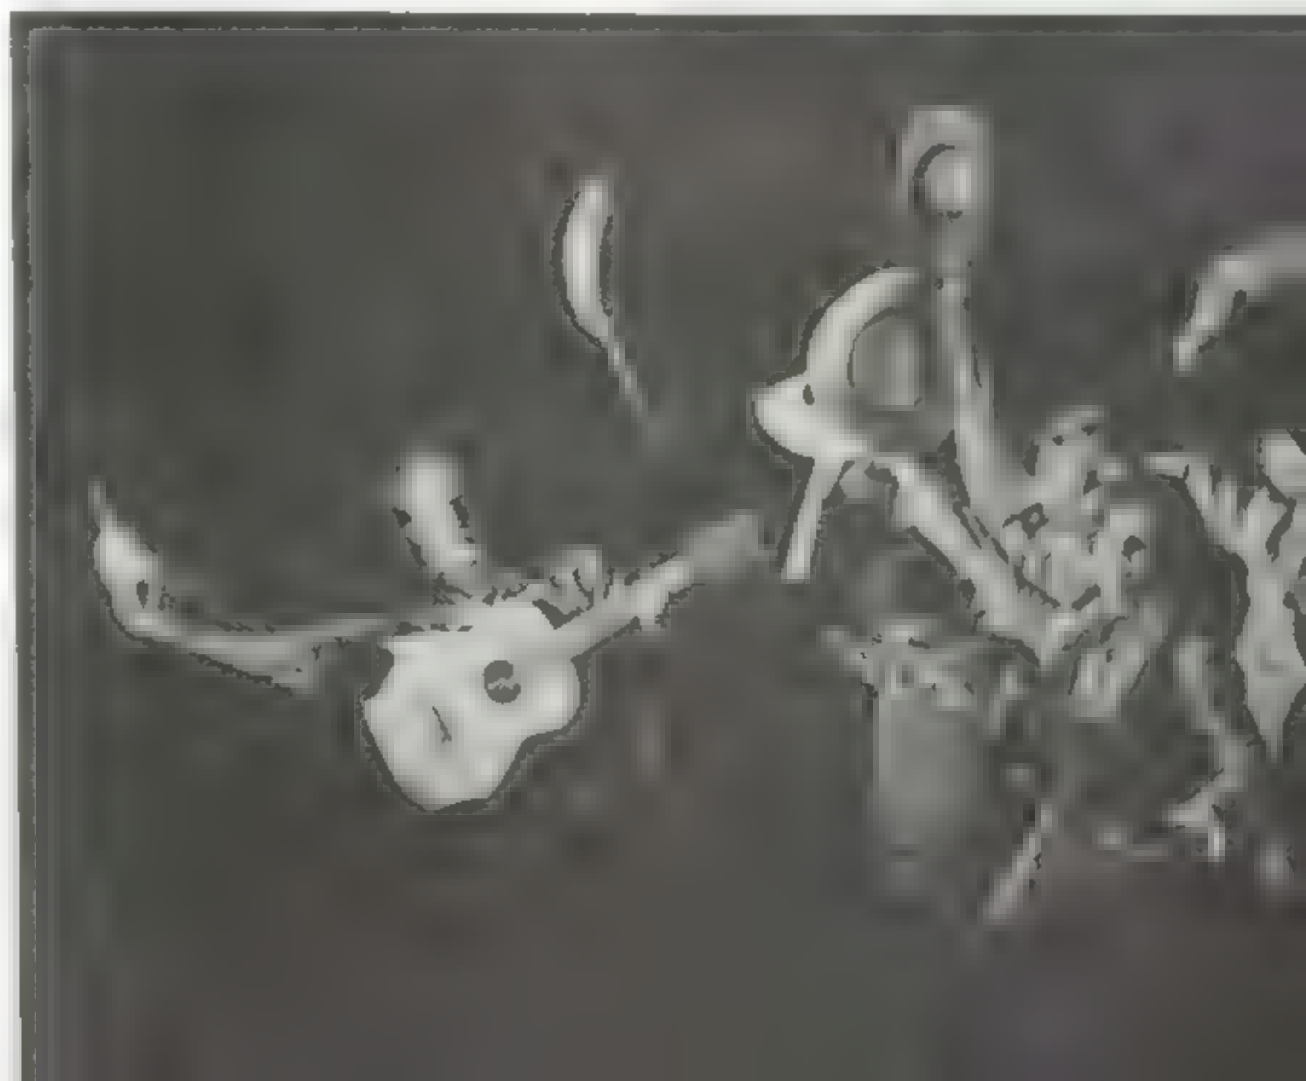

Of course, everyone looked forward to the "biggies" of the day. Best performance by an actor and actress. Amid screams and shouts from an ever faithful audience, Dave Fassold was absent at the time he was to receive this awrd for his big break: The Hairy Godfather.

Entertainment was offered by several quality acts. Shawna Schuh performed a modern ballet drama, to Let's Just Kiss and Say Good-bye. Greg Goodwin gave the audience a fine example of his ~~son~~ talent playing the drums. The dance team bid farewell to the Senior Class with fond memories of the Bicentennial. The Jive-Alike Funkadelica, by popular request, returned to perform thier disco talents. Finally, the Saddle Sore Nine, turned away by Broadway but welcomed by their own dear student, captivated the audience as they rendered a collection of two great Country-Western hits.

Although only in its second year, it seems as though the tradition of the Good-bye Grads Assembly has not only been established, but anticipated.

GRADUATION

Sunday, June 5

581 graduating seniors traversed the sunlet streets from their mustering place at the Mid-High gymnasium to Hare Field. Basking in 88 degree weather, the warmest day of the year, was a great relief after the closing rainy days of school. The weather was touch-and-go on the choice of an indoor or outdoor graduation exercise. The weather broke this Sunday morning in favor of the Hilhi graduates once again.

Blazermania gripped the graduating class. Everyone sported a transistor radio on their trek to Hare Field. Graduation came in the midst of a crucial game for the World's Championship in professional basketball. If Portland won their sixth game, they would be the champions. The final minutes of play were being broadcast during the march to their graduation seats. A great cheer came up as one-half of the graduates had filed onto the field it was Portland 109 107 over the Philadelphia 76ers. The time: 2:18 p.m.

KGW Sunk 90-85 by
Hilhi "HasBeens"

The Junior Senate was the sponsor of the Hill faculty versus KGW No-Stars basketball game, held on February 24. To save face for the school the Spartan sportsmen pulled off an impressive margin of five points, with a final score of 90-85.

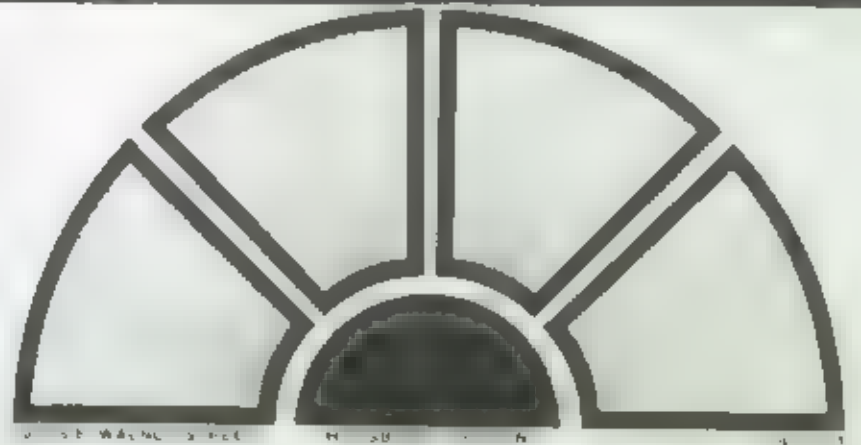

Over 600 people came to view the event. This brought in some $510 for the Junior Senate, and Chairman Chris Moore summed up the game by saying, "Not only did it provide excellent entertainment for those people who came, but it put quite a bit of money into the treasury. Lots of thanks go to Mrs. Cox and Mrs. Gehrts, advisors, for letting us do this, and also to Robin McKee for organizing the game."

Cheerleaders for the game were not the usual type, but rather six teachers: Miss Buller, Mrs. Mortland, Ms. Shrauger, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Cox and Ms. Piro. Numerous thanks to them for putting on such a peppy display of Spartan spirit!

Sparta Index

Advertiser's Note: Every attempt has been made to list the names of all students who attended Hillsboro Senior High School during the 1976-77 school year in the following index. Many names appear without page numbers behind them. This means that there was not a record of their photo being in this yearbook or an oversight on our part. It has been noted that the sophomores, in part, may not have been completely indexed. It is suggested that you turn to page 156 the beginning of the sophomore section, and create yours or your friends photo graph. You may wish to add numbers after names for your own future records and to bring your book current.

"Memories of Yesterday...

Dreams for Tomorrow."

FAR LEFT: After an exasperating day, Louie Loeffler heads for home.

UPPER LEFT: Debbie Coverston, Criste Campbell and Debi Thurman talk about the latest "man of their dreams."
